

An Evening for Couples Dinner/Dance

"How to Stay Married"

The Wisconsin Rapids Deanery Family Life Committee is sponsoring a dinner/dance for all engaged and married couples. John and Mary Sullivan will be the featured speakers.

About our speakers: Mary and John are from Stevens Point. Mary was born and raised in Baraboo; John in Wisconsin Rapids and graduated from Assumption High School. They met at the UW Stevens Point where John was enrolled in History and Mary in Primary Education. Following their marriage they stayed in this area to raise their five children. John worked at Sentry Insurance for 42 years and Mary was a Kindergarten teacher until they both retired in 2007. Mary continues teaching part time as a Reading Teacher/Literacy Coach with elementary school children and teachers. John continues part time in a governance role for the Sentry Insurance Foundation. Currently, Mary and John are the Community Coordinators for the Central Wisconsin Retrouvaille that encompasses the entire LaCrosse Diocese. They share a wealth of personal and married-couple experiences that have spanned their almost 50 year relationship. Their experiences include vulnerabilities that have tested, broken, and ultimately strengthened their marriage. They offer reflections on these life experiences that address such questions as "Where does God fit in our marriage?"
