

Study Guide: Prayer in the Christian Life; Evangelical Counsels

To study the topic on the Church's teaching about prayer, consult the paragraphs indicated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC). Note that the "In Brief" sections may help answer the questions below.

1. What is prayer? Why is humility the foundation of prayer? (CCC 2559)
2. How does the Catechism explain the text from John 4: 10 in the context of prayer? How is prayer a two-way street (CCC 2560-2561)
3. How does the Catechism view the importance of the heart in prayer? Why the heart? (CCC 2562-2564)
4. How does the Catechism characterize "the habit of prayer"? (CCC 2565)
5. From where does the desire to pray come? (CCC 2566-2567)
6. To describe the role of prayer in the Old Covenant, the Catechism begins with creation. What is the connection with prayer in the world's non-Christian religions? (CCC 2569)
7. What is the chief characteristic of Abraham's prayer? Why is it important? (CCC 2570-2573)
8. Why is the incident of the burning bush one of the "primordial images of prayer" in the tradition of the Old Covenant? What does Moses learn of prayer? (CCC 2574-2577)

9. What does the Church learn from the prayer of Samuel, David, and Solomon? (CCC 2578-2580)

10. Why is the mission of the prophets one of conversion of heart in prayer? (CCC 2581-2584)

11. What characteristics of prayer emerge from the Psalms? (CCC 2585-2589)

12. What are the "evangelical counsels"? Why do certain persons take them on as part of their Christian lives? (CCC 914-916)

13. The Catechism describes the many varieties of consecrated life using the Evangelical Counsels. Briefly, define and show how the counsels are practiced in: the eremitical life ... (CCC 920-921)

14. ... the life of consecrated virgins ... (CCC 922-924)

15. ... life in institutes of "religious life"... (CCC 925-927)

16. ... and in "secular institutes"... (CCC 929-929)

17. ... -and life in "societies of apostolic life". (CCC 930)

18. According to the Catechism, what is the point of all of these versions of consecrated life? (CCC 931-933)