ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today's second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: "Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today's story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us.

A letter from Cardinal Egan :

Dear friends in the Lord:

We are truly delighted that the Bicentennial Anniversary of the Archdiocese of New York will be brought to an extraordinarily happy conclusion with the visit of our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, to New York. This historic occasion will indeed be a time of great spiritual grace for Catholics and all of the people of Greater New York.

As everyone will understand, the cost of an event of this kind is very high. Accordingly, I write to invite all of the People of God of the Archdiocese to make a truly sacrificial offering to help defray some of the expense of the Papal Visit. A collection will be taken up in each of the parishes of the Archdiocese on the weekend of April 5th and 6th. Your participation in this collection and your prayers for the success of the Holy Father's visit will be deeply appreciated.

With prayerful best wishes, may I remain,

Very truly yours in Christ,
Edward Cardinal Egan
Archbishop of New York
